Dear Parents/Carers

Thank you for your forbearance over what is a very difficult time for us all.

I am sure you will have listened to the Prime Minister this evening. As a result of his announcement, we will have to change our current plans, pending any further guidance from DfE.

Tomorrow school will be closed for all, other than any vulnerable students that have been agreed and offered places, together with children of key workers.

Staff in school on Tuesday will be planning future provision, with a likelihood that we will return to some rotas similar to those employed in March. An online learning timetable has already been rolled out to Years 9/10/11 today, with supported learning from tutors. This will continue this week and then adapted for the following week. Also prepared today were numerous work bundles, which, alongside Free School Meal packs for those who eligible, will be delivered tomorrow and Wednesday.

It is essential that you keep in communication with us, especially when staff are coming out to your homes with deliveries of work, welfare calls or FSM. Tutors will be in contact directly with you again this week to update you with revised plans and to see if there is anything that we can do to support you within the new rules.

I know this is going to be a difficult time for us all and it will be important that we work together to ensure the boys continue to thrive and succeed.

Yours sincerely

Mrs M Davis
